15/48 TO DISCUSS AND AGREE A FUTURE STRATEGY FOR BURNASTON PARISH

A discussion took place on various possible locations within the village and at Mickleover Country Park for new housing developments. It was suggested that a small development up to a maximum of six dwellings would be considered acceptable. A further suggestion was for a Working Party to be established to consider in further details a strategy.

A copy of the Parish boundary was requested and the Clerk will be asked for one to be ordered.

Suggestions were made for improvements within the village, including solar paneling for the Village Hall, a new kitchen, flower planters, benches and a Victorian Lantern

There being no further business, the meeting closed at XXpm.
